

Excerpt from Page 46

The Happy Crabby Crying Happy Family's Blessing

"They also agreed that when something isn't how we think it should be, He will give us the ability to accept and make the very best of the circumstance in our heart. He will show us that there may indeed be something for us to learn, and that His way to peace may very well be a call for action to do something good for someone else's heart."